

PROTECTED DISCLOSURES

The Protected Disclosure Act 2012 (PD Act) enables people to make a disclosure about corrupt or improper conduct by a public officer or a public body.

The Caulfield Racecourse Reserve Trust is a public body for the purposes of the PD Act.

What is a protected disclosure?

A protected disclosure is a complaint of corrupt or improper conduct by a public officer or a public body.

'Improper or corrupt conduct' involves substantial mismanagement of public resources, risk to public health or safety or the environment, or corruption.

How do I make a protected disclosure?

You can make a protected disclosure about the Trust or its board members, officers or employees by contacting IBAC (details below).

The Trust is not able to receive protected disclosures.

The Trust is committed to ensuring that any person who makes a protected disclosure about the Trust, its board members, officers or employees is protected from detrimental action in reprisal for making that protected disclosure.
